Learners in Receipt of Low Wages

- Learners who are employed and cannot contribute to the cost of course fees may be entitled to a fee concession if they meet the following conditions:
  - The learner must be studying a course at Level 2 or below or studying a Level 3 qualification from the free courses for jobs offer list.
  - The learner must be earning less than £25,642.50 annual gross salary (on the assumption of a full-time contract with paid statutory holiday entitlement).

OTHER LISTED DEVOLVED FUNDING AREAS

- The College does not currently hold a funding allocation to deliver education and training to adults residing in the below areas and is therefore unable to provide funding for learners residing in these areas.
- Learners with postcodes in this area would need to cover the cost of their course themselves.
- If the course is Level 2 or below a ‘full cost’ fee will be made available in line with the Fina A Learning Aim funding value for the course and market conditions as agreed by the college’s Senior Management Team (SMT).
- If the course is Level 3, the learner may be able to apply for an Advanced Learner Loan as detailed in the Fees Policy or pay for the course themselves using the payment methods detailed in the Fees Policy.
- Only learners studying a Level 3 course with funding through an Advanced Learner Loan will be able to make a financial hardship application.
